Days 1 - 5 Cles, The Dolomites

Our Tour will start in Cles, so your flight will need to get you to Milan, Malpensa Airport where we will meet you and take you to our Milan Hotel before transferring to Cles at 9.00 a.m. on 10 June.

Our tour will begin on Monday 10 June when we'll travel from Milan to our first base in Cles; the home of World Champion Maurizio Fondriest. Once in Cles we'll settle into our hotel (Hotel Cles) and go for a short familiarisation ride, visiting Maurizio's bike shop before heading back to the hotel for welcome drinks.

Maurizio will meet us in Cles and guide our rides in the Dolomites which will average 80 to 100km per day. While in Cles we will also visit the winery of Francesco Moser and check out his amazing bike museum. You'll visit some of Maurizio's favourite places and do the rides he loves.

Cles is in the province of Trentino in North Eastern Italy and the perfect place to acclimatize and get ready for the Italian Alps. Surrounded by the Dolomites, Trentino is the meeting place between northern and southern Europe and hosts a rich artistic, historical, and cultural heritage. More importantly, Cles has fabulous hidden gems which are only accessible when you have a local guide.

Days 6 - 10 Bormio, The Italian Alps

Day 6 starts with a picturesque transfer from Cles to our second base in Bormio in the Italian Alps. We'll settle into our accommodation at Hotel Alu and stretch our legs on a familiarisation ride before dinner.

Situated in the Stelvio National Park, Bormio is a tourist hot spot in winter and summer. Well known since Roman times for its thermal baths, Bormio offers some of the world's best known climbs.

The Stelvio Pass and the Gavia Pass are included in most editions of the Giro d'Italia and the proximity of other famous climbs such as the Mortirolo, Foscagno, Eira and Umbrail means that our week in Bormio will allow you to ride a new and challenging route every single day.

Rides in the Alps will average 100km per day with 2000-3000 metres of climbing. Those who want to get the most out of their experience will be able to climb both ascents of each climb and we'll offer three different options for each of the climbs so everyone can brag that they've climbed the icons.

After breakfast on Day 11 we will provide transfers to the Bormio train station in Tirano so you can make your way to the airport for the next leg of your journey or to return home.
